

Lowenhaupt & Chasnoff Adds Two Law Clerks

Family Wealth Advisory Law Firm Developing Bright Young Talent

St. Louis, Jan 15, 2025 – Lowenhaupt & Chasnoff LLC (L&C), a 112-year-old law firm focused on family wealth advisory and legal services, today announced that Law Clerks Teb Bin and Willow Stallings have joined the firm. Both work alongside other members in the firm, providing administrative, legal, and office support services to the attorneys.

Teb Bin is currently pursuing a Juris Doctor degree at Washington University in St. Louis after graduating from Peking University in China. Earlier in his career, he worked as an employment lawyer in Beijing, providing advisory and litigation services for business clients. He also interned at the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Eastern District of Missouri, where he observed and assisted in federal bankruptcy proceedings.

Willow Stallings expects to earn a Juris Doctor degree from Washington University in St. Louis in May 2025 after graduating summa cum laude from the University of South Carolina in 2021. Stallings has previously clerked with the American Civil Liberties Union, the National Consumer Law Center, and the Metropolitan St. Louis Equal Housing and Opportunity Council. Willow has worked as a radio DJ at KWUR at Washington University, and is looking forward to representing WashU Law as a member of its ABA Representation in Mediation team.
